

Kentucky Office of the Attorney General Missing Children Training

Lodging Scholarship

The Kentucky Office of the Attorney General is hosting a conference at the Kentucky Expo Center on September 6-8, 2023. This educational event will offer participants access to national experts from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, as well as from other federal and state agencies. Learn more about the training by visiting our Event pages: social service professionals and law enforcement professionals.

Thanks to funding from the Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention Board, scholarships are made available to recipients who work in fields surrounding the prevention, investigation, and intervention of child exploitation and who are dedicated to keeping children safe. If that describes you, please submit this form to apply for a free night's worth of lodging associated with the conference. Submission of this form does not ensure that the award will be granted. Scholarships are provided on a first come first serve basis and take geography, professional diversity, and financial need into consideration.
